Comments:

Keysight Technologies appreciates the opportunity to provide the attached quote for your test and measurement needs. Special terms are included with this quotation since special discounts are being granted. Your concurrence with these special terms will be required with any resulting order under this quotation.

Products purchased under this quote must be placed on one purchase order and no products may be added at a later date. Products must be delivered to one location and no extended delivery is permitted. This is a one-time special discount that will not apply to any future order(s). In the event Keysight reduces the list price of a product on this quotation during the validity of this quotation or prior to shipment, the list price for such products will not be reduced.

The sale of products under this quotation is predicated upon ordering the products and quantities as specified on the quotation. Changes to product mix and/or quantities may affect the discount percentage. Products purchased herein will not qualify to earn discounts or dollar volume under a subsequent Purchase Agreement.

For credit card payment - Keysight privacy policy dictates that the customer's credit card information be accessible only to those directly responsible for
